

Pamela Jean Brown

February 4, 1954 - September 6, 2019

Pamela Jean Brown, 65 of Danville, WV passed away peacefully at approximately 10:00 a.m. on September 6, 2019, at Charleston Memorial Hospital.

Pam was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend.

She was a devoted wife, married to her husband Raymond for 50 years. They recently renewed their wedding vows on June 7th. They were high school sweethearts. Their life revolved around each other and their families.

She is also survived by her three sons and their families, David and his daughters Rayell and Cassie, Allen, Rhonda(wife) and kids Ally Boktor (Andrew) and Peyton, Chris, Amanda (wife) and kids Donovan, Dyllyn, Sabrina, Jacob and Maddux.

Pam was born February 4, 1954, in Pikeville, KY. She is the daughter of Jo Ann Sparks of Beckley. She is survived by her two brothers and their families Michael Workman and Jerome Sparks. Pam was the ultimate family lady and brother and sisters-in-law meant the world to her.

Family was the most important thing to her, but she was an avid antique collector. She loved thrift shopping at flea markets, yard sales and eBay. She was also crazy about Disney.

Funeral service will be 11 a.m. Tuesday, September 10, 2019 Handley Funeral Home, Danville, WV with David May officiating.

Friends may call one hour prior to the service.

Raymond and family

So sorry about Pam. She was such special person. Haven't saw her for awhile but have lots of good memories. We were the lunch bunch. We would shop till we dropped then have lunch two or three times a week. Her kids were her life. I know you will miss her but you have lots of good memories. Be strong for each other My prayers are with you

Pam was more than a sister in law to us. She was my sister. We've known you for many years and being married to my brother Raymond brought us even closer. I'll never forget all the Tea parties, the Halloween parties, the get togethers, your love of Disney and how much you cared n loved your family!! We love you Pam and will miss you everyday. Sadly, Rick and Anna
